

INAUGURAL WORKSHOP ON ACCOUNTING AS A SOCIAL AND ORGANIZATIONAL PRACTICE
ASOP 2018

THURSDAY 15th FEBRUARY 2018,
CASE STUDY LECTURE THEATRE 1050,
ABERCROMBIE BUILDING (H70), UNIVERSITY OF SYDNEY

8:00am	Registration
	Day 1 Facilitator - Professor Wai Fong Chua, University of Sydney
8.45am	Opening and Welcome Address – Professor Greg Whitwell, Dean, University of Sydney Business School
9.00am	Session 1: Emotional risk work and performance measurement – a case study of the evolution of risk management practices in a global technology firm Martin Carlsson-Wall, Katarina Kaarboe, Kalle Kraus and Anita Meidell
	Session 2: Accounting talk and emotions - a study of the reading of pension accounts Charlotta Bay, Fredrik Svärdsten, Bino Catasús and Andreas Sundström
10.30am	Morning Tea
11.00am	Session 3: The emotional dimension of accounting practices in decision making – the case of a financial institution in assisting business turnaround Norio Sawabe and Kohji Yoshikawa
	Session 4: Towards post-political regulation? Collaborative tax compliance in Finland Jaana Kettunen, Jukka Pellinen and Tuulia Potka-Soininen
12.30pm	Lunch
2:00pm	Session 5: Modes of constitution: an essay on accounting performativity Lichen Yu and Christian Huber
	Session 6: The role of economics in performing accounting standards: a study of the emergence of the expected credit loss model in IFRS 9 Richard Pucci and Peter Skærbæk
3.30pm	Afternoon tea
4:00pm	Keynote speaker

	Mr Peet Vermeulen, Head of Analytics and Ranging Solutions, Buying and Merchandising, Woolworths Supermarkets (please note, this is a closed session)
5:00pm	Reception Drinks The Refectory, Level 5, Abercrombie Building
6:00pm	Dinner Thai Riffic , 109 King Street, Newtown
FRIDAY 16TH FEBRUARY 2018, CASE STUDY LECTURE THEATRE 1050, ABERCROMBIE BUILDING (H70), UNIVERSITY OF SYDNEY
8:45am	Registration
	Day 2 Facilitator - Associate Professor Maria Cadiz Dyball, University of Sydney
9.30am	Plenary Address – Professor Christopher Chapman, University of Bristol
10.30am	Morning Tea
11.00am	Session 7: Accountability, distance-repair, and public-private partnerships: the case of an Australian prison Paul Andon, Jane Baxter and Linda English
	Session 8: Hillsborough: the fight for accountability Christine Cooper
12.30am	Lunch
1:30 pm	Session 9: Accounting bricolage, or how the risk-based planning concept “corridor planning” was invented by a Big-Four accounting firm Ass. Prof. Dr. Matthäus Tekathen
	Session 10: Vernacular accountings and the information gap in organizations Eksa Kilfoyle, Matthew Hall and Alan J. Richardson
3:00pm	Afternoon tea
3:30pm	Session 11: More art than science? The social construction of value in art Maude Plante, Clinton Free and Paul Andon
	Session 12: On the transformation of financial accounting: IFRS and the financialization of the firm Berit Hartmann and Jan Mouritsen
5:00pm	Closing session