

ASOP Conference Program

Wednesday, 12th February 2020 – Paper Development Workshop

All sessions will be held in Room 5040 in the Abercrombie Building H70 at the University of Sydney Business School

9:00 – 9:30	Registration	Coffee and tea on arrival
9:30 – 10:15	Self-assessment, rankings and the controllability principle: water pricing in Victoria, Australia Damien Lambert and Edward Tello
10:15 – 11:00	The performativity of rankings: a diffractive ethnography on how rankings come to matter Jacqueline Drost, Reinald Minnaar, Ed Vosselman, Koos Wagenveld
11:00 – 11:30	Morning tea
11:30 – 12:15	Ending the silence: accounting for Aboriginal ‘stolen wages’ in Australia Daniel Murphy and Lee Moerman
12:15 – 13:15	Lunch
13:15 – 14:00	The earnings presentation: a performative performance Matt Bamber
14:00 – 14:45	The ‘death’ of calculation: exploring the conditions of calculative practices Charlotta Bay, Bino Catatus, Andreas Sundstrom and Fredrik Svardsten
14:45 – 15:00	Feedback and concluding comments Wai Fong Chua, University of Sydney
15:00 – 15:30	Afternoon tea

Thursday 13th February 2020 – ASOP Conference

All sessions will be held in Room 1050 in the Abercrombie Building H70 at the University of Sydney Business School

8:30	Registration	Coffee and tea on arrival
9:30 – 9:45	Welcome address Wai Fong Chua, University of Sydney
9:45 – 10:30	Session 1 Agencification – replacing liberal democracy with neoliberal accountability Christine Cooper, Jonathan Tweedie, Jane Andrew and Max Baker	Chair – John Roberts
10:30 – 11:00	Morning Tea
11:00 – 11:45	Session 2 The institutional work of crisis management: a case study of the CPA Australia governance crisis Paul Andon and Conor Clune	Chair – John Roberts
11:45 – 12:30	Session 3 Acting on distance: the road to entrepreneurship and the construction of a small accounting practice Reaven Yu and Simon Tan	Chair – John Roberts
12:30 – 14:00	Lunch
14:00 – 14:45	Session 4 “Integrated” multi-organisational risk management processes: insights from Australian Cotton Paul Thambar, David Brown and Prabhu Sivabalan	Chair – Maria Dyball
14:45 – 15:30	Session 5 (For)getting things in numbers: commensuration and durability of traveling accounting inscriptions Andreas Sundstrom	Chair – Maria Dyball
15:30 – 16:00	Afternoon tea
16:00 – 16:45	Session 6 Forms of ties in situations of uncertainty: what venture capital analysts do with accounting and other information Jan Mouritsen and Dane Pflueger	Chair – Maria Dyball
16:45 – 17:45	Tales from the field Zoe Whitton, Head of ESG Research, Citi	Chair – Wai Fong Chua
17:45 – 18:15	Pre dinner drinks	The Refectory
18:15	Dinner	Level 5, Building H70

Friday 14th February 2020 – ASOP Conference

All sessions will be held in Room 1050 in the Abercrombie Building H70 at the University of Sydney Business School

8:30	Registration	Coffee and tea on arrival
9:30 – 10:30	Plenary Address Regulatory responses to transnational initiatives: country by country disclosure and regulator’s “uncomfortable knowledge” David Cooper, University of Edinburgh	Chair – Wai Fong Chua
10:30 – 11:00	Morning Tea
11:00 – 11:45	Session 7 The limits of Anglo-American accounting? The “birth pains” of emerging European public sector accounting standards (EPSAS) Annemarie Conrath-Hargreaves, Richard Pucci and Sonja Wustemann	Chair – Sue Newberry
11:45 – 12:30	Session 8 Global standards without the United States? – institutional work and the U.S non-adoption of IFRS Kirsten Becker, Holger Daske and Christoph Pelger	Chair – Sue Newberry
12:30 – 14:00	Lunch
14:00 – 14:45	Session 9 Accounting as metrological infrastructuring: a study of the making of the Australian carbon market Wai Fong Chua, Tanya Fiedler and Christina Boedker	Chair – Jane Andrew
14:45 – 15:30	Session 10 Making things “listable”: accounting and the self-coordination of citizens in managing the refugee crisis in Germany David Crvelin and Lukas Loehlein	Chair – Jane Andrew
15:30 – 15:45	Closing Session Wai Fong Chua, University of Sydney

Australian member of:

